

LEGO® Certified Professional Builder Coming to Model Car Mecca 2008

Vancouver, BC - November 28, 2007 – Model Car Mecca, western Canada's newest automotive hobbyist show, is excited to announce that Robin Sather, Canada's only LEGO® Certified Professional builder, will be on hand at the March 22nd, 2008 show, along with several of the Pacific Northwest's most talented adult LEGO builders.

Robin and these other builders will bring many highly detailed custom automotive LEGO® models to see and marvel over. Kids will also have the opportunity to interact with Robin and the other builders, and to build their own LEGO creations at a special play area at the show.

Best of all, Model Car Mecca will be hosting a LEGO model building contest, to be judged by Robin. Kids of all ages will bring their own automotive LEGO creations from home, have them displayed at the show, and be eligible to win fantastic LEGO prizes. More details on the LEGO building contest will appear on the Model Car Mecca website in January 2008.
